The cover art is a black and white illustration. In the foreground, a muscular, shirtless man with a determined expression is running towards the viewer. He is holding a large, heavy machine gun in his right hand, which is firing upwards, creating a plume of smoke. He is wearing dark trousers and boots. In the background, another soldier in a full uniform and helmet is running up a set of stairs. In the lower right foreground, a soldier in a uniform is lying on the ground, looking up at the main character. A submachine gun lies on the ground near him. The overall scene is set in a dark, industrial or military environment with smoke and dramatic lighting.

The Missions

Mission One.....Dresden Strike
LocationCastle outside Dresden
Objective.....Terminate Hans Grösse and escape

You have been captured on a mission to uncover the plans for Operation Eisenfaust...in the dark corners of a dungeon fortress you are harshly interrogated. In a desperate attempt to escape, you overpower the cell guard. Armed only with the guard's pistol and knife, you must escape...

Mission Two.....A Dark Secret
LocationCastle Erlangen
Objective.....Terminate Trans Grösse and escape

The insane warrior Trans Grösse has developed a full line of the most feared tool of modern warfare—the chemical weapons. You've been assigned to stop him from his mad task. Castle Erlangen sits atop a cloudy mountain...its massive stone walls are lined with a smooth carpet of moss. No one knew the location of this castle until a few days ago...you were rushed there by the President in hopes of catching the sparse guard unaware.

Mission Three Operation Eisenfaust
Location Dr. Schabb's Research Laboratory
Objective..... Terminate Dr. Schabbs

You must finish the mission you started in Mission One...find out if Operation Eisenfaust is real, or a ploy. Reported by some agents to be a plan to create the ultimate soldier, it is believed Dr. Schabbs managed to graft a working gun onto the chest of some of his less-fortunate minions, and then brought them back to life! Somewhere in the depths of his laboratory, Dr. Schabbs awaits you with his corpeso-kinetic serum. Defeat him or he will turn you into a mutant!

Mission Four..... Trail of the Madman
Location Mountain Fortress
Objective..... Terminate Übermutant

Trans may be terminated, but his weapons of woe are ready for war! Hidden in the dank dungeons of their mountain fortress are the plans for the first wave of the chemical nightmare. You must fight your way to the very bottom, and battle the Übermutant, who guards the plans. You begin your adventure after descending in the castle's elevator. You are looking for the map room that is guarded by the Übermutant. These maps will lead you to the secret base where the weapons and soldiers are being amassed. You've got to find them fast—before choking clouds of noxious gas pour out over Europe and the world!

Mission FiveConfrontation
LocationCastle Heidenheim
Objective.....Terminate Death Knight

Chemical war is about to be waged on a massive scale unless you can stop the evil Death Knight from unleashing his burning gasses! You found the plans hidden in the musty dungeons of the Mountain Fortress, and they led you here...to Castle Heidenheim, perched on a small rise between two massive mountains. Inside its forbidding stone walls are tons of crack troops and the grotesque Death Knight himself!

Mission Six.....Hitler's Last Stand
LocationCastle Wolfenstein
Objective.....Terminate Hitler

Take out the nexus of the master state...Hitler. You've searched for him in bunkers from Normandy to Bern, but he fled to Castle Wolfenstein, a titanic fortress in a forgotten province impervious to invasion...except for yours. You must make it past his numerous guards and crack-shot officers to reach the final confrontation. And you can be sure that Hitler will be ready for you!

The Items

There are many different types of items scattered about. Pick them up by merely walking over them. Note that you can't pick up healing items if you are at 100% health. Also, you can't pick up ammo if you are already carrying the maximum amount.

Dinners

After clearing your hosts, it's time to handle a hungry one-man army. The allies' elite also get the best dinners—packed with nutrition and healing power of 10%

First Aid Kits

The bad guys have intercepted Red Cross shipments! Now stored among their strongholds, these kits are the latest in medical technology, and will increase your health by 25%.

Ammo

These guards are armed to the teeth. Gracious even in defeat, they'll leave their ammo for the taking! Pick up unused ammo for 10 bullets.

Ammo Boxes

These are spare caches of ammunition. Pick them up for 40 bullets.

Ammo Packs

Huge ammo packs will increase the maximum number of bullets you can carry. It never hurts to have a few extra rounds on your hip.

Knife

You always have a knife. It will help you out if you need a shave, but for the most part is used only when you're out of firepower for a final mano-a-mano.

Pistol

You always have a pistol, and will start the game out with one. This is the weakest of the guns...and unlike the knife, it doesn't need sharpening!

Machine Gun

The primary weapon of the S.S. Guard. It's efficient and powerful, especially when attacking multiple enemies. You can hold down the fire button for rapid fire.

Flame Thrower

This pyro-tool is powered by the gas cans that you'll find along the way. Hang fire on the bad guys with a burst of flame.

Launcher

Rockets fired from the launcher have the ability to plow through several enemies, provided they are in the line of fire.

Chaingun

Using the Gatling Gun principle of a rotating barrel, this is a destructive machine that will clear the room in a New York minute...however, it has a huge appetite for ammunition. Hold down the fire button for rapid fire.

Treasure

Hitler has a twisted obsession for treasure and other artifacts. This ill-gotten booty is stored within the walls of his impenetrable fortresses. When you collect treasure, as a bonus, health increases by 4%.

Keys

Some of the upper levels are well-secured with locked doors and elevators. You'll need to search the level for keys into these areas. There are two types of locked doors in the enemy's fortresses. Some doors require the gold key to open, and some require the blue key.

One-Ups

Hidden within secret rooms of the fortresses are items that give you that extra urge to keep fighting! Grabbing one of these items will bring your Health to 200%!

The Enemy

Guards

The grist for Hitler's mill, but an effective force in groups.

They wear no body armor and can be brought down by a single (but well-placed) shot. Carrying only a pistol, their firepower isn't exactly menacing. Guards are slow to react and must stop and take aim before shooting, making them particularly vulnerable to machine-gun attack.

S.S. Guard

The S.S. Guard are well-trained and can rarely be surprised. Most will bark a warning when they become aware of your presence...this can make for an easy head count! However, some are trained to be silent. Wearing thick vests and carrying a machine gun, the S.S. are difficult to bring down and pack a heavy punch. If an S.S. Guard shoots you at close range, the encounter will be brief—because you'll be toast!

German Shepherds

Trained to kill, these pernicious pups are fast and vicious, but one shot should take them down. Since they dodge so well, it's best to get their attention and wait for them in a doorway. If you don't wait until they are in close range, you'll waste a lot of ammo.

Officers

Officers are usually silent until they spot you. They can rarely be surprised and are fast, intelligent fighters. Officers will move to the left and right as they fire, making them difficult to hit. An officer's weapon of choice is a pistol. They wear light vests and can take about half the damage of an S.S.

Guard. Don't underestimate their abilities. In close-quarters combat, these guys will make life miserable...and short!

Helpful Hints

- Every level has hidden stuff. Not only could you use all those power-up items, but you can get a nice bonus for finding all of them, too.
- Your captors may be rude hosts, but they would never hide anything that would be necessary to escape. Keys and elevators can always be reached through non-hidden passages.
- Pushwalls are usually in alcoves, corners, or the ends of hallways. (But not always!)
- The doors and walls are not completely soundproof. Firing your weapon is likely to bring nearby guards running towards you.
- Don't stay in a doorway with the guards in the room beyond. If you do, they can easily sneak up from the side and shoot you.
- The closer you are, the more damage you can inflict.
